

GEOFFREYDITTA

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR & KEYNOTE SPEAKER (CONTRATADO DOCTOR ANECA)

gditta@ucm.es

+34603368080

17 Aug, 1987 — French
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/prof-dr-geoffrey-ditta-861b16b7/>
Location: Madrid

RESUME

I hold a Ph.D. in Economics from the University of Lyon 2 Lumière in France and have previously served as a Professor of Geopolitics at Harvard and Paris-Sorbonne. Currently, I am a Professor at the Complutense University of Madrid, where I lecture on Administration and International Management. I am also involved as a volunteer with the United Nations, serving as a lead researcher

CERTIFICATIONS

Lead Researcher. United Nations - East and Southern Africa

Profesor Contratado Doctor. ANECA

C1 Advanced Cambridge English

Equivalence of Foreign Higher Education Doctoral. Universidad Complutense de Madrid

Informador en Crédito Inmobiliario Banco de España

LANGUAGES

French | Native

English | Advanced

Spanish | Advanced

EXPERIENCE

Invited Professor of Global Politics 2025
Harvard Kennedy School of Government — Cambridge, Massachusetts

- Investigate how business strategies adapt in geopolitically volatile regions.
- Study the role of multinational enterprises (MNEs) in achieving Business development goals.
- Analyze the geopolitical risks faced by global supply chains or resource-based industries.
- Courses on Global Governance, Geopolitics of Development, Institutions & Conflict.
- Training students and professionals in negotiation, and international management.

Lead Researcher 2025
United Nations

- UN Volunteer Assignment (12 weeks).
- Supported research initiatives on positive masculinity, gender equality, and human rights in DR Congo.
- Collaborated with local partners and NGOs on the ground to align research objectives with community needs.
- Contributed to defining the research scope and parameters, including identifying relevant literature and sourcing data.
- Conducted field-informed research and prepared a concise analytical report summarizing findings and actionable insights.

Professor of Economics 2024 — Present
Complutense University — Madrid

- Contribute to the academic and professional discourse through the production of publications in the fields of international business, economic development, and geopolitics.
- Deliver over 180 hours of annual teaching for Master's and MBA programs, with a focus on interdisciplinary approaches that bridge theory and practice in global economics, finance, and international affairs.
- Provide strategic insights into market trends and conduct in-depth analysis on how investments impact key economic outcomes, including productivity, profitability, and long-term sustainability.

Senior Researcher in Economics 2019 — 2024
Nebrija University — Madrid

- Analysis of economic trends and their impact on business decisions.
- Development of econometric models to forecast market performance.
- Conducting research on consumer behavior and formulating strategic recommendations.
- Direct and lead the Master's Program in Internationalization, overseeing curriculum design, faculty coordination, and strategic development.

International Risk Analyst 2018 — 2019
BNP Paribas — Madrid

- Conducted economical research to obtain information useful in providing BNP financial services.
- Worked in conjunction with the BNP Risk and Control team to ensure compliance to procedures.
- Interacted with clients to determine their financial objectives, earnings, and expenditure so as to design appropriate financial plan.

Industrial Chief 2015 — 2017
COMSA Corporation — Mexico

- Managing Eolis Industrial Division (250 people, 50 projects)
- Coordinating project managers team, assists the CEO in Economic Capital and development.
- Presenting of results to senior stakeholders including organization executive functions.
- Organizing meetings according to the protocol with both internal staff and with external customers and counterparts. (Japan, Europe, America).

International Business Developer 2014 — 2015
French Ministry of Europe and Foreign Affairs — Santiago Chile

- Internationalization of Small and Medium-sized Enterprise in Chile (Sustainable development).
- Promoting the Chilean-French Collaboration in industry affairs at the French Embassy.
- Organization of professional events with the Economics Services at the French Embassy in Santiago.

Economic Research Assistant 2013
United Nations, ECLAC — Mexico

- Analysis and interpretation of statistical data in order to identify significant differences between sources of information.
- Designed research projects that apply valid scientific techniques and utilize information obtained from baselines or historical data in order to structure uncompromised and efficient analysis.
- Developed and tested experimental designs, sampling techniques, and analytical methods.

EDUCATION

Global Politics 2025
Harvard Kennedy School — Cambridge MA

Economic Researcher 2020
Sorbonne University — Paris

Ph.D. Economics 2019
Lyon 2 Lumière — Lyon

Master, Economy, Law, Management IAE 2014
FRANCE — Montpellier

Bachelor in Science and Technology 2012
UPVD — Perpignan